

Boston Office,
4 Park Street.

HOUGHTON, MIFFLIN & CO., Publishers.

New York Office,
11 E. 17th St.

Boston, June 9, 1887.

Dear Mr. Shay:

I think this paper will answer, but it has rather more gloss, & a redder complexion, than I like. Enclose a sample of what we think a nice book or pamphlet paper.

I have been so busy the last fortnight, that I have not yet had time to make up a list of persons to whom the pamphlet should be sent, but shall try to do so by Sunday. I think it will be the ~~safest~~ way to avoid mistakes if such copies as Mr. Johnson wants are sent to him, wrapped or enveloped, & if he then forwards the list of those being supplied to you. I will give you my list, & we can agree as to the division between us of our two. We ought to know whether the libraries supplied by the Society include those to whom we should naturally send it, - Kansas, Cornell, Harvard, Boston, Yale, &c. But I can discuss this with you when you come down

I said good by to the Westons last evening, & they spoke of having - ceived your kind letter.

I haste, affecy.

Frank J. G.